Amy's Blue Daisy is ready to take you back in time with their new project, Old Time Photos.

The idea of bringing old time photography to Augusta came to owners, Libby Estill and Amy Schmidt, during one of the monthly meetings of the Augusta Business Association. "Augusta will be commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Augusta," said Libby Estill. "We just wanted to do something to add a little spice to the anniversary."

In honor of the celebration, Amy's Blue Daisy has put together several Union and Confederate soldier and officer uniforms. They also have beautiful Southern Belle gowns, Southern Gentlemen outfits and of course the ever popular Cowboys, Bank Robbers, and Roaring 20's Flappers.

A portion of the store has been transformed into a Victorian era living room. Those posing can look out an old window where they will see a beautiful stern-wheeler docked on the Augusta riverbank. What a great way to blend the past and the present.

"We are very excited about this new adventure," said Libby. "This could be a great way for families to plan an afternoon of fun and their photo will be ready in just minutes," she added.

Amy's Blue Daisy will kick off their Old Time Photography during this weekend's Blueberry Festival. "Stop by the shop, pick out your costume and let us do the rest," said Amy. If you would like to schedule an appointment for your photo shoot, call 756-2821. You may also drop by the shop at 128 Main Street in Augusta anytime.

Bradford Lawsuit Dismissed

A wrongful death lawsuit filed against police in the death of Robert Bradford has been dismissed by a federal judge. The lawsuit stems from the May 2009 shooting death of Robert Bradford at his Eden Ridge home near Foster by a Bracken County Sheriff's Deputy, Campbell County and Kentucky State Police officers. After a domestic violence call took an unexpected turn, officers found themselves in a standoff with Bradford. After repeated requests to surrender, Bradford was shot by officers when he reportedly came towards them in a front-end loader.

Safe Sitter Program graduates eight at Bracken Health Dept.

The Buffalo Trace District Health Department held a Safe Sitter® class at the Bracken County Health Department on June 19th. Eight pre-teens participated in the program and all graduated as certified Safe Sitter® babysitters. The students learned basic first aid, how to save a choking infant and child, techniques for preventing problem behavior, and basic child care essentials. They also learned how to make babysitting a successful business.

Safe Sitter® began because of a tragedy. The accidental death of a nurse's young child while in the care of an adult babysitter prompted Dr. Patricia A. Keener, an Indianapolis pediatrician, to create Safe Sitter®. In reflecting on her colleague's loss, Dr. Keener recognized the vulnerability of young children when cared for by unprepared providers. Safe Sitter® fills the gap by increasing the availability of safe and nurturing adolescent caregivers.

In March 1980, a mere two weeks after the tragic event, Dr. Keener taught the first Safe Sitter® class at Park Tudor School in Indianapolis, Indiana. That same spring, student classes were taught at Community Hospital, where Dr. Keener was Director of Nurseries. Three years later, Dr. Keener taught the first Instructor Workshop in Indianapolis to train adults to teach children to be better, safer babysitters.

Each year nearly 35,000 young adolescents complete the course. We appreciate those who participated in the class and Bracken County Health Department for hosting it. For more information on the Safe Sitter® classes contact the Buffalo Trace District Health Department at 606-564-9447 and you may also visit www.safesitter.org.

Adopt-A-Shelter-Dog

This little Chihuahua needs a special home full of love and attention. We call her Little Girl and she is very shy. Once she gets to know you she stays by your side, but it takes a caring person. I believe she would make a great companion for a person who lives alone. Her favorite thing is sitting beside you or in your lap. To adopt Little Girl you would pay $5 for a Bracken County Dog Tag.

Our adoption fee is a 40 lb bag of dog food. You would be required to have her spayed within 40 days and that would cost you about $55 with a Vet that assists us with low cost Spay/Neuter. You can go to any Vet, but need to ask about their fees and charges. Call the Bracken County Animal Shelter at 735-3475.

POWER TO OVERCOME

by Cornelius R. Stam

Every true Christian knows by experience that the Holy Spirit does not, upon saving us, take possession of us and thenceforth supernaturally cause us to live lives pleasing to God. Rather, as with salvation, so with the Christian life, He operates in the believer "by grace through faith".

Powerful assistance to overcome sin is freely provided by grace, but this help must be appropriated by faith in each individual case. There is no blanket provision for continuous victory throughout our whole life. We must look to Him in faith for the help we need in each separate battle.

Thus the Scripture teaching with regard to victory over sin is not that it is not possible for the believer to sin, but rather that in any given case it is possible for him not to sin. Thus too, the question in times of temptation is generally whether we truly desire to overcome, for deliverance is freely provided by grace if we will but appropriate it by faith.

But just how is deliverance provided? The answer is: BY THE HOLY SPIRIT. No longer need the believer remain enslaved to sin; for the Holy Spirit within, who imparted spiritual life to begin with, will also impart strength to overcome temptation. When tried and unable even to pray as we ought, "the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities" and "maketh intercession for us" (Rom. 8:26). When weak and ill, we may be "strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man" (Eph. 3:16). Indeed, the Spirit even strengthens God's people physically to overcome sin, for we read:

"But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken [strengthen] your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you" (Rom. 8:11).

And the following verse goes on to say:

"Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh" (Rom. 8:12). The thought is that, since believers have the Holy Spirit to help them overcome sin, they are debtors -- and not to the flesh, but to God, to live pleasing to Him.

Berlin Baptist Revival is June 29-July 1
 Berlin Baptist Church will hold Revival Fri. & Sat., June 29 & 30 at 7 p.m. and Sun., July 1 at 11 a.m. Evangelist is Bro. Steve Kinman. There will be special music. A meal will be after the Sunday morning service with music starting at 1 p.m.

Greetings from the church mouse. This week may we remember that God has a plan for each of us, and we must deeply desire to follow wherever He leads.

On this very warm, sunny Sun., June 24, we had 90 to SS and 125 to worship service. All are welcome to "the little church with a big heart". SS is 10 a.m., worship service is 10:45 a.m.

Bro. Jackie had Addison Jones come up front and we all sang "Happy Birthday" to her. Addy celebrated her 4th birthday on June 22.

Jane Nelson's specials were "This Is My Story", "There Shall Be Showers Of Blessings", "In The Good Old Summer Time".

Remember in prayer: Ruby Highfield (back problems), Bobby Cummins, Dickie Hargett, Ed Thornsby (heart), Nancy Richmond (Misty Jones' aunt), Albert Blevins (epidural injection this week), Ruby Silvey, Terry Hall, 7 yr. old Sandy Pickrell, Shawna McKenney, Janet Morris, Delmar Sharp, each name on the prayer list and always each other. Sympathy goes out to all the families in the passing of their loved ones...Dalton Ruf, Charlotte Fryman, Adrian Tull Jr., Betty Owens, and Raymond Whitehead.

Don Johnson blessed us with a very beautiful song called "Cradled Up In The Arms Of The Lord".

Bro. Jackie's message, "How Salvation Works". Scripture: Acts 2:36-42. Conviction & belief, repentance, confession, and baptism. Jesus is the only way to get to Heaven. What will you do with Jesus? Accept Him or reject Him? The choice is yours.

Jordon McKinney came forward today accepting Jesus as his personal Savior. We welcome you to God's family & our church family. Jordon was baptized following worship service.

We had 22 to Bible Study tonight. Frank Booth was unable to be with us and we sure did miss him. Our love and prayers are with you. Appreciation to Randy & Sharon Lucas for the delicious refreshments.

NEW LIFE FELLOWSHIP Doug Tucker, pastor

What a blessing to be in the Lord's house! The Adult Sunday School class, taught by Jeremiah Hansen, is studying God, the author of our story. From Genesis to Revelation, the Bible is the story of God's relationship with his people.

Angela Tucker brought the special this morning called "Home". Pastor Doug spoke about facing the giants in our lives. We all have problems in our lives, but with God on our side, we can face anything.

Please continue to keep Camp Samuel in your prayers. Camp is July 12-15 and registration begins at 8 a.m. on July 12. Our TNT fireworks tents have been set up in 3 locations. There is one in the Walmart in Maysville. Come on out to purchase fireworks and help with Camp Samuel.

Our Wednesday evening times have changed. Wednesday evening meal and fellowship time is at 6 p.m. and prayer service is at 7 p.m. Sunday School classes for all ages begin at 9:30 a.m. and praise and worship is at 10:30 a.m. Junior Church and nursery are provided. Remember God loves you and so do we! We are located at the intersection of the AA Highway and 875 on the left.

GREETINGS FROM ST. JAMES by Caroline Jefferson

St. James Annual Ice Cream Social will be held on Sunday, July 22 beginning at noon and concluding at 6 p.m. with the drawing of the names of the raffle winners. On Saturday evening, St. James will have a 5 p.m. evening Mass followed by a Pulled Pork Supper of sandwiches, chips, slaw and a drink. The Ice Cream Social Chairs are asking for donations of bottled water and canned pop and new or gently used items for the Silent Auction and Country Store. If the item is too large for you to deliver to the church, please give Angie Bauer or Mary Alice Thornbury a call for pickup of the item.

The leaders of the Catholic Church in the U.S. have dedicated June 21 thru July 4 as "Fortnight for Freedom" encouraging Catholics and members of all faiths to use these fourteen days to pray for our government leadership, that their hearts and minds will be transformed and that the changes that need to be made in the health mandate will once again restore one of the most precious rights that we have as citizens - that of religious freedom. May God bless these great United States!

Mass at St. James in Minerva

St. James Catholic Church in Minerva will hold Mass on Sunday, July 1 at 10 a.m.

PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI by Les Grooms, pastor Augusta Presbyterian

Last week was Market Place at Ruggles Campground. Cost is $8 and included three meals and a t-shirt for each child. We had seven children from our church that attended as well as two of our great-grandchildren.

Saturday was the wedding of Jill Hargett and Josh White. The wedding was held on the river and the setting was gorgeous.

Saturday afternoon we hosted a meeting of the Augusta Ministerial Association and said goodbye to Father Ed who is transferring. Frank Estill and I will be taking care of the disbursement of help by the Ministerial Association for the next year. Hopefully after one year there will be a full time priest at St. Augustine and he can take over. We desperately need contributions because our funds are almost depleted.

We had a baby shower in our church on Sunday afternoon for Colt and Wyatt who are twin sons of Deanya and Kevin Woodruff. They were born prematurely but are doing well.

We had a Gideon speaker Sunday, Jimmy Taylor, who was such a wonderful speaker that I have invited him to come back in August. His wife will be with him and will sing a song or two.

Old Campmeeting Time is July 19th

The sound and the spirit of campmeeting is in the air and More Than The Music will present "Old Campmeeting Time" opening concert for the 139th Annual Ruggles Campmeeting on Thursday, July 19 at 7 p.m. Come and enjoy the great gospel music from a variety of singers!

Ruggles Campground is located approximately four miles south of Tollesboro.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN by Barbara Browning

Summer is officially here, but it will disappear as fast as it came. Time slips away. A point from today's message was that in this world people are so non-trusting, non-loving, and non-supporting, but friendships is precisely what people are craving the most. Are we being the church and leading people to Christ?

Oakland Christian Workers will meet at Clara Holmes' in Falmouth, July 4th. Ladies are always invited.

Our choir will be presenting its musical "God Bless the U.S.A." at the 10:35 a.m. morning worship, July 1. A special treat for the choir is that we will also be presenting our musical July 7th in Falmouth at the stage on Shelby Street, at 6:30 p.m. (following their parade in which our youth will be having a float). So come hear us! It's very patriotic and only thirty minutes long.

Revival is fast approaching with Pat Mooney as evangelist, July 15-18, and special music each night.

Prayer concerns include Juanita King (back surgery, August 8), Pearlle Wright (Harrison Memorial), Lucille Barnhill, Tim Goshorn, Ralph Monson, Ann Branham, Charles Lee Ramsey, Shawna McKenney, Janet Bishop, Hope Groves, Eudell Hall, Dan Brewer, our armed forces, our shut-ins, and our leaders.

NEW ZION BAPTIST by Sheril Fletcher

Come join us for worship. Sunday School starts at 10 a.m., Morning Worship at 11 a.m. and Evening Worship at 6:30 p.m. There is also Bible Study on Thursdays at 7 p.m.

Wow! VBS was a blast this year with all the little cowboys and cowgirls stomping their feet because they love Jesus! Psalm 149:3 - (Let them praise His name in the dance: let them sing praises unto Him with the timbrel and harp.)

Upcoming: There will be a WMU and Deacon's meeting July 1 at 6 p.m. On July 3 the CrossFire Crew will be bagging groceries at the County Market from 3-9 p.m. At 12:30 p.m. on July 8 there will be a business meeting. On July 14 there will be an Ice Cream Social at 7 p.m.

Remember in prayer Janet Bishop, Jim Hill, Ann Branham, Vicky Call, Megan Gordley, Chasity Beane, Melvin and Trudy Blevins, Wendall Lea, Merle Slusher, Nan Bowman, Wanda Nickerson, the Owens and Fugate families and all of our men and women in uniform. Also remember to pray daily for our country and its leaders.

TRASH TALK

by: Mr. Recycle Bin & Ms. Pick-Up Litterbug

Howdy Folks! 2012 is halfway over and in another six months we will be headed into winter, but the weather predictions for the end of this week are for mid-ninety temperatures! Please use caution when working and playing outdoors, making sure that you have adequate hydration and that there is plenty of sunscreen to go around. It is especially important to keep check on elderly family, friends and neighbors, many of whom have pets that need extra care these hot and hazy days also. With all our modern conveniences to help regulate the temperature to keep us comfortable, we wonder how our ancestors managed to survive! We remember vividly the days before we had air conditioning units and our children bring that to our attention every once in a while! It just makes one that more grateful for the cool air after a day's work in the summer sun!

The sun, and more specifically its energy, is increasingly becoming a valuable source of electrical power throughout the United States and the world. Renewable energy sources are necessarily becoming alternative options to coal and oil as the main producers of energy for everything from heating homes to running our cars. It would take many pages to describe the how and whys of turning the sun's energy into useful electricity to run everything imaginable, but the main idea is that we will become less dependent on coal and oil. These fossil fuels are definitely limited and at the rate we currently use these limited natural resources, our grandchildren will need another energy source!

Limited natural resources being used up at an alarming rate is the main reason we encourage as much recycling as possible. All plastics, when all is said and done, are produced from oil which we know is expensive because it is a limited natural resource. When products are produced from the recycled plastic, much less energy is used to produce those products and a lot less, if any, of the natural resource is needed. The same principle holds true for aluminum cans which can be produced at a fraction of the cost when using the recycled aluminum as opposed to manufacturing new cans. Currently in the United States, there are more than 100 million aluminum beverage cans sent to landfills, littered or incinerated each and every day! Americans throw away enough aluminum cans to rebuild an entire commercial fleet every three months! Aluminum cans are the one item that any person can sell so there is really no reason for any can not to be recycled! There are a multitude of individuals and organizations that routinely sell cans to finance everything from children's toys to the homes that house both the children and their toys, as does Habitat for Humanity!

We are proud of all Bracken County residents who have developed the good habit of recycling! Our nine county recycling trailers are available nearly 24/7 and we try our best to keep each of them emptied. We urge any business or individual who has a lot of cardboard to recycle to give us a call and we will stop by and pick it up for you! This cardboard is put into the back of the pickup truck which allows more space in the trailers for the normal household recycling material and it makes it much easier to unload and recycle at the Recycling Center! Know that you are saving the future for your family when you RECYCLE, REUSE and REDUCE to keep God's earth clean, green and beautiful! Be seen' you - Bin & Bug.

Judy Kurtz commissioned a Kentucky Colonel

The highest honor awarded by the Commonwealth of Kentucky is that of Kentucky Colonel. Commissions for Kentucky Colonels are given by the Governor and the Secretary of State to individuals in recognition of noteworthy accomplishments and outstanding service to a community, state or the nation.

The commission was bestowed to Judy (Pollard) Kurtz in June of 2012 for outstanding and dedicated work in the field of education, most specifically technology education for KYVS - KY Virtual Schools.

Judy (a Bracken County High School graduate -1973) has been a teacher since 1978. She taught at Mason County Middle School until retiring in 2010, many of those years in the area of instructional technology. She started and continued to work multiple years with the 'techie' group, then the STLP - Student Technology Leadership Program. She spent one year 'on loan' to KY Department of Education as a curriculum technology consultant. She is a certified online facilitator and designer for KYVS of professional development courses, professional learning communities and virtual high school courses.

She continues to work online and as a Leadership Assessment team member for KDE. Also, she has found great joy in substitute teaching from grades preschool to high school seniors. Every child, regardless of age, wants the same three things: to be looked in the eye; to have the adult know and call their name; and respect for the wonderful person they each are in this world.

Judy resides with husband of 38 years, David, in Mason County. They are the parents of: Louci of Middlesboro, KY, David Isaac of Washington, DC, and Wendy of Lexington, KY. Grandchildren are: Olivia, Jonah, and Josiah Peed of Middlesboro, Ky.

Pest-proofing lawns and play areas

By Lee Townsend
Submitted By: David Appelman CEA for AG & Natural Resources

Summer means the opportunity for lots of outdoor play time but also provides the opportunity for bites and stings along with the normal scrapes and bruises. Spiders, bees, and wasps are among the backyard creatures that are commonly encountered. Some education and regular inspections of potential trouble spots will go a long way toward reducing problems. A proactive approach and a watchful eye is needed with very small children but providing some age-appropriate information on recognizing common pests and learning what to do to avoid problems is part of developing “out-door readiness”.

Here are some examples and countermeasures:

- Chiggers and ticks live in areas with tall grass and weeds. Keep grass mowed to remove what chiggers and ticks need: high humidity and protection from excess sunlight.
- Spiders tend to remain around undisturbed clutter, indoors and out. It gives them protection and a place for their prey to live. Removing clutter and regularly disturbing what remains will make places undesirable for spiders and their prey. Spiders also can take up residence in tall grass around the supports for swing sets and other fixed playthings. These areas should be clipped regularly. Outdoor toy chests, gymsets, and playhouses should be checked weekly – look closely at corners for signs of spiders and webs.

- The warning coloration – yellow, orange, and black markings on wasps and bees for example - warns of the ability to sting or bite. Usually, these insects are busy collecting supplies for their nests and are completely uninterested in humans. They will only react if disturbed, captured, or crushed. Learning to leave them alone and moving slowly away is a good strategy.
- Yellowjackets often nest below ground with an opening near surface rocks, landscape logs, or beneath shrubs. Some social wasps and hornets’ nest in hollow spaces in trees, toy chests, and similar places. Seeing them regularly fly to and from a specific spot in the yard suggests a nest. Avoid the area until the presence of a nest can be confirmed and treated. Accidentally approaching a wasp nest can provoke a defensive response. It is better to remain as motionless as possible. Angry bees and wasps go toward movement. Try to remain still and slowly back away from danger rather than run while wildly flailing arms.

- Sweat bees and other insects often land on the skin. Brushing them off is much better than slapping them, which often results in a sting.
- Sweet drinks and food can attract bees and wasps, especially later in the summer. Keep food and drink covered when outdoors to minimize attraction. Clean up sweet, sticky spills quickly to avoid attracting many unwanted visitors.
- Sand boxes, especially when used infrequently, provide the loose, well-drained area that ground-nesting bees and wasps prefer. Thoroughly disturbing the sand every couple of weeks should make the area unsuitable for tunneling insects.

- Regular inspections and cleaning can detect and remove many potential pest problems. A broom and sprayer with insecticidal soap is usually enough to dispense with most problems. However, dealing with established wasps and hornets is best left to professionals.

BCMS dance & fitness students introduced to a variety of foods

Students enrolled in Dance and Fitness classes at Bracken County Middle School were introduced to a variety of foods this year. Shannon Smith, Family and Consumer Science Agent, and Trish Conley, Bracken County FRYSC Coordinator presented various topics including but not limited to caffeine and sugar content in foods/drinks and the health risk involved, portion size and portion control, healthy snack alternatives, an assortment of vegetables and healthy preparation ideas, and “My Plate” to the students.

Due to the rising numbers of obesity and diabetes in children and young adults, the University of Kentucky has been developing programs for agents to introduce and discuss healthier lifestyles to students. The lessons and activities consisted of one day each week for six weeks. The focus was to emphasize the importance of healthy eating plus allowing the students to be exposed to and encouraged to taste different foods.

This is the second year for the program and each year students appear to absorb the message and especially enjoy the foods and drinks that are a part of the program.

GET YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY STATEMENT ONLINE

by Michael W. Grochowski
Social Security Regional Commissioner in Atlanta

If you would like to get a Social Security Statement, which provides estimates of your future benefits, it is now available online at www.socialsecurity.gov.

"Our new online Social Security Statement is simple, easy-to-use and provides people with estimates they can use to plan for their retirement," said Michael J. Astrue, Commissioner of Social Security. "The online Statement also provides estimates for disability and survivors benefits, making the Statement an important financial planning tool. People should get in the habit of checking their online Statement each year, around their birthday, for example."

In addition to helping with financial planning, the online Statement also provides workers a convenient way to determine whether their earnings are accurately posted to their Social Security records. This feature is important because Social Security benefits are based on average earnings over a person's lifetime. If the information is incorrect, the person may not receive proper benefits.

The online Statement provides you the opportunity to save or print the document for future reference, or to have handy for discussions with family members or a financial planner.

According to the American Customer Satisfaction Index, users are giving the online Statement a score of 89, making it competitive with our other top-rated, best-in-government online services, such as the Retirement Estimator and online retirement application.

To get a personalized online Statement, you must be age 18 or older and must be able to provide information about yourself that matches information already on file with Social Security. In addition, Social Security uses Experian, an external authentication service provider, for further verification. You must provide identifying information and answer security questions in order to pass this verification. Social Security will not share your Social Security number with Experian, but the identity check is an important part of this new, thorough verification process.

When your identity is verified, you can create a "My Social Security" account with a unique user name and password to access your online Statement. In addition, your online Statement includes links to information about other online Social Security services, such as applications for retirement, disability, and Medicare.

For more information about the new online Statement, please visit www.socialsecurity.gov/mystatement.

Frankfort Focus

A Legislative Perspective on the Kentucky General Assembly
State Rep. Mike Denham

Kentucky has long been a major player in the automotive industry, but few know that this relationship is fast approaching its 100th anniversary.

It all began in 1913, when Henry Ford's fledgling company set up an assembly operation on South Third Street in Louisville. Seventeen people worked there, including the on-site sales team, and they churned out 12 vehicles a day while being paid about eight cents an hour.

Production grew steadily, and in early 1925, what is widely considered the country's first modern assembly plant opened its doors on a 22-acre site on the outskirts of town. It was designed for 1,000 employees, and could produce 400 Model T's - and then Model A's - daily.

That facility was replaced in the 1950s, and in 1969, the company added a second assembly plant on the eastern side of Jefferson County.

A dozen years later, General Motors became the second major auto company to set up shop in Kentucky when it moved production of its iconic Corvette to Bowling Green, the only place in the world where it is built.

Kentucky's fourth assembly plant arrived at the end of the 1980s, when Toyota constructed what is now its largest North American factory and its second-largest overall.

Together, these three car companies have made Kentucky one of the leading states in auto production. In any given year, we rank from third to fifth in the number of light cars and trucks rolling off the line. Last year, that total reached 640,000.

In addition to quantity, our auto workers excel at quality too. The Toyota Camry made in Georgetown has been the best-selling car for 14 out of the last 15 years, for example, and the Ford F-Series trucks that Louisville helps to make have been the best-selling vehicle for more than 30 years while the F-150 was named Motor Trend's Truck of the Year in 2011. The Corvette stands alone as well atop its luxury sports car category.

In addition to the four assembly plants, Kentucky has become a key destination of auto parts companies as well, thanks to our top-notch workforce, inexpensive electricity and the fact that the state is within a day's drive of about half of the country's 4,400 motor-vehicle related companies.

Almost exactly 10 percent of those are in Kentucky, and together, they employ nearly 69,000 people, which is a sixth of the state's manufacturing workforce. Our region, of course, is home to a few of these, including Mitsubishi, Green Tokai, Toyo Seat USA Corp., Hypac, A Raymond Tinnerman and several others nearby.

Last year, nearly 80 auto-related businesses announced they would either expand or move here, creating more than 5,400 new jobs and investing more than $1 billion. So far this year, industry investment is nearing $180 million, with an additional 530 jobs being added.

The General Assembly

is working to do what it can to add to these numbers. In 2007, the legislature gave Ford an incentives package that is helping the company invest $1.2 billion in its two Louisville facilities and hire several thousand workers. The legislature extended that same offer this year to GM, Toyota and several large auto parts suppliers, if they are willing to take major steps to expand as well.

A promising area where Kentucky is also playing a leading role is research into the batteries that will power our vehicles in the years ahead. A partnership between the state, the University of Kentucky, the University of Louisville and a prominent federal lab based in Chicago began in 2009, and their research is housed in a $17 million, 43,000 sq. ft. facility opening this year. On a related note, Louisville has been a regular host of the annual conference of the National Alliance for Advanced Technology Batteries.

Like most industries, those in auto production have faced some tough times in recent years, but there is strong evidence nationally that better days have returned. For states like Kentucky, that news could not come at a better time.

As always, I appreciate those who take the time to contact me if they have any questions or comments about issues affecting the state. If you would like to join them, my address is Room 329G, Capitol Annex, 702 Capitol Avenue, Frankfort, KY 40601.

You can also leave a message for me or for any legislator at 800-372-7181. For those with a hearing impairment, the number is 800-896-0305.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Water - Essential for Life

This report is designed to inform the public about the quality of water and services provided on a daily basis. Our commitment is to provide our customers with a safe, clean, and reliable supply of drinking water. We want to assure that we will continue to monitor, improve, and protect the water system and deliver a high quality product. Water is the most indispensable product in every home and we ask everyone to be conservative and help us in our efforts to protect the water source and the water system.

The source of your drinking water is ground water from wells. The area around the wells is mostly residential but also contains some agricultural, recreational, and light industry activities and has a moderate susceptibility. The final source water assessment for our system has been completed and is contained in the Bracken County Water Supply Plan. The plan indicates that the source water is susceptible to some contaminants caused by agricultural activities in the area. The Plan is available for inspection at the Buffalo Trace Area Development District (606-564-4333), located at 327 west 2Nd St., Maysville, KY 41056.

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects may be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and may pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity. Contaminants that may be present in source water include: Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, (sewage plants, septic systems, livestock operations, or wildlife). Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, (naturally occurring or from stormwater runoff, wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming). Pesticides and herbicides, (stormwater runoff, agriculture or residential uses). Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, (by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, or from gas stations, stormwater runoff, or septic systems). Radioactive contaminants, (naturally occurring or from oil and gas production or mining activities).

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations that limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water to provide the same protection for public health.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Some or all of these definitions may be found in this report:

Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) - the highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.

Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG) - the level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL) - the highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG) - the level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.

Below Detection Levels (BDL) - laboratory analysis indicates that the contaminant is not present.

Not Applicable (N/A) - does not apply.

Parts per million (ppm) - or milligrams per liter, (mg/l). One part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000.

Parts per billion (ppb) - or micrograms per liter, (µg/L). One part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000.

Parts per trillion (ppt) - one part per trillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000,000.

Parts per quadrillion (ppq) - one part per quadrillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000,000 years or one penny in $10,000,000,000,000.

Picocuries per liter (pCi/L) - a measure of the radioactivity in water.

Millirems per year (mrem/yr) - measure of radiation absorbed by the body.

Million Fibers per Liter (MFL) - a measure of the presence of asbestos fibers that are longer than 10 micrometers.

Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) - a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity has no health effects. However, turbidity can provide a medium for microbial growth. Turbidity is monitored because it is a good indicator of the effectiveness of the filtration system.

Variances & Exemptions (V&E) - State or EPA permission not to meet an MCL or a treatment technique under certain conditions.

Action Level (AL) - the concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements that a water system shall follow.

Treatment Technique (TT) - a required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Spanish (Español) Este informe contiene información muy importante sobre la calidad de su agua beber. Tradúzcalo o hable con alguien que lo entienda bien.

The data presented in this report are from the most recent testing done in accordance with administrative regulations in 401 KAR Chapter 8. As authorized and approved by EPA, the State has reduced monitoring requirements for certain contaminants to less often than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants are not expected to vary significantly from year to year. Some of the data in this table, though representative, may be more than one year old. Unless otherwise noted, the report level is the highest level detected.

	Allowable Levels	Highest Single Measurement	Lowest Monthly %	Violation	Likely Source
Turbidity (NTU) TT * Representative samples of filtered water	No more than 1 NTU* Less than 0.3 NTU in 95% of monthly samples	0.32	99	No	Soil runoff

Some of the cars, trucks, and motorcycles registered for the car show and cruise-in held at Cummins' Auto Center on Saturday can be seen. Everyone from young to old enjoyed looking at the wide array of vehicles showcased that day. Attendees enjoyed give-a-ways, "golden-oldies" music, and good food prepared and served by Bethany Church of Christ.

Sports in Kentucky by Bob Watkins

Best sports moments in Kentucky? Here is one man's dozen

Magazine headline: The Best Sports Moment in the History of Your State is ...

Results came from a question: "... which moment each state should be most proud of." According to ESPN, The Magazine, June 25, 105,000 responded. Results from Kentucky. Secretariat winning the 1973 Derby in record-setting time is our proudest moment in sports, 31.8 per cent said. Runner-up: Muhammad Ali's Thrilla in Manila title win over Joe Frazier in 1975, 20.8 per cent.

Clearly, Secretariat and Ali loom large in Kentucky's sports pantheon, but best ever? Nada.

Still, the proudest moments in sports premise is useful. Here are a dozen of mine.

12. Blanton Collier, born in Millersburg, schooled at Paris, coached at Kentucky (1954-62), but reached his zenith coaching at NFL Cleveland. His Browns won 76 of 110 games, 1963-70, an NFL championship in 1964.

11. Perfect season ... almost, 1953-54 Kentucky won 25 without a loss. Season imperfect by a peculiar NCAA ruling. Stars Frank Ramsey, Cliff Hagan and Lou Tsioropoulos were ineligible for tournament play because they were in graduate school.

LaSalle, led by Tom Gola, won the 1954 NCAA title. Early in regular season, Kentucky defeated the Explorers handily, 73-60.

10. Frank Selvy. Corbin native was first and only Division I player to score 100 points in a college game. Long before the 3-point line was a thought, Furman coach Lyles Alley gave Selvy the nation's leading scorer a green light. On February 13, 1954 ('Frank Selvy Night'), with the player's mother and family in the stands, Alley took note it was South Carolina's first ever televised college game and made way for an American Moment.

A scorekeeper estimated a dozen of Selvy's 41 field goals would have been threes instead of twos including a 40-footer at the final buzzer in Textile Hall. Selvy made 41 of 66 shots, 62 per cent, and cashed 18 of 22 free throws.

All the way to a 50th anniversary in 2004, ever modest and reluctant with fame Frank Selvy, has been recognized or honored nationally one way or another.

Anecdote. Selvy's rise to fame is, in its way, a classic kid-with-a-dream metaphor depicting our state's roiling passion for its dream game.

Growing up in Corbin, Selvy wanted to play at Kentucky. As a senior in 1950 he was a 150-pound 6-foot center. Adolph Rupp, saw UK's future through a lens that featured 7-foot Bill Spivey, 6-5 Shelby Linville, 6-4 Cliff Hagan and 6-3 Frank Ramsey. Rupp needed guards.

By mid-summer, Selvy had grown to 6-feet-3 and, despite a one-point performance against Indiana in the all-star classic, was MVP in the East-West all-star game. Rupp dispatched assistant Harry Lancaster for another look at Selvy.

Too late. Lyles Alley had woo-ed Selvy to Furman. His UK dream in the rearview mirror, the Corbin kid kept to his family-taught principles.

In turn, Lancaster recommended another undersized high school center as guard prospect. Bill Evans of Berea took the scholarship Selvy should have gotten. The rest is another Dream Game chapter. Both went on to illustrious careers.

By his senior year at Furman, Selvy had broken every scoring record north and south of the Mason-Dixon Line, led the nation in scoring, 41.7 points a game and was a college All-American. He played nine NBA seasons.

Evans became a starter on Kentucky teams that won 48 of 51 games. He was chosen to the U.S. team for the Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia and brought home a gold medal.

9. Ashland High and Carr Creek. Adolph Rupp is credited with making basketball king in Kentucky, but two high school teams set a standard long before Rupp arrived from Kansas. Ashland and Carr Creek. In March, 1928 in Chicago, Ashland and Carr Creek were in a field of 40 teams invited to play for the National Interscholastic Basketball Tournament title.

Carr Creek won hearts of fans and Ashland won the championship and USA's first national championship.

Prophetically, one writer said, "The two schools established Kentucky in the national consciousness as a basketball powerhouse."

8. Bird Brothers. Jerry, Calvin, Billy and Rodger Bird's impact on football and basketball in Kentucky remains unmatched. Jerry was a basketball All-American for Adolph Rupp. Calvin led Corbin High to a state football title in 1955, was all-state then starred at Kentucky; Billy was a football all-stater and one of the state's finest basketball guards; Rodger led Corbin to an unbeaten season in 1960, became an All-American at Kentucky then played for the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl II.

7. Valley Station-Louisville's Little League team created its own dream game experience in 2002. Won baseball's LL World Series at Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

5. Kentucky's 1948 NCAA title team starters (Fabulous Five) stood at attention as our national anthem played at the XIV Olympiad in London. Gold medals for native sons Kenny Rollins (Wickliffe), Wah Wah Jones (Hazard) and Ralph Beard (Louisville). Cliff Barker and Alex Groza and coach Adolph Rupp wore gold also.

4. Mary T. Meagher is 47. She will always be Madame Butterfly. In Olympics in 1984 and 1988 – three gold medals, a silver and bronze, and two world records. Meagher is still swimming's best ever in the butterfly.

3. Harold Reese. Spring training at Vero Beach, Florida, 1947, Kentucky native PeeWee was asked to sign a petition saying players would not take the field with a black man. "I'm not signing that! No Way," he said.

2. PeeWee Reese II. In Cincinnati during Jackie Robinson's rookie year with Brooklyn, Reds players were name-calling Robinson mercilessly. Reese, of Ekron in Meade County, walked over to his second baseman, put an arm on his shoulder. Years later Robinson wrote, "He stood there beside me awhile. He didn't say a word, but he looked over at the chaps who were yelling at me and just stared. PeeWee was standing by me. I will never forget it."

1. A.B. 'Happy' Chandler. October, 1946, 15 of 16 Major League teams voted no against Dodger General Manager Branch Rickey's signing Jackie Robinson. The Commissioner of Major League Baseball said yes. With Kentuckian Chandler's unwavering support, Robinson broke baseball's color line in 1947.

EPILOGUE. Ashland and Carr Creek in 1928 to Happy Chandler's place in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York today, and time-line points between – Kentuckians own an exquisite array of proud moments in sports, but also a socially profound impact on America too. And so it goes.

Text change states when Rate GS deposit may be waived in conjunction with taking service under Rate RS.

Kentucky Utilities Company proposes to change the text of the following electric tariffs: General Service Rate GS, All Electric School Rate AES, Power Service Rate PS, Time-of-Day Secondary Service Rate TODS, Time-of-Day Primary Service Rate TODP, Retail Transmission Service Rate RTS, Fluctuating Load Service Rate FLS, Street Lighting Service Rate ST. LT, Private Outdoor Lighting Rate P.O.LT, Cable Television Attachment Charges Rate CTAC, Curtailable Service Rider CSR10, Curtailable Service Rider CSR30, Excess Facilities Rider EF, Redundant Capacity Rider RC, Supplemental/Standby Service Rider SS, Rider IL for Intermittent Loads, Temporary/Seasonal Service Rider TS, Large Green Energy Rider LGE, Low Emission Vehicle Service Rate LEV, Fuel Adjustment Clause FAC, Demand Side Management Cost Recovery Mechanism DSM, Environmental Cost Recovery Surcharge ECR, and the Terms and Conditions.

Changes to the Terms and Conditions include proposed clarifications on terms and conditions for determining customer rate assignments, as well as when standby or supplemental service must be purchased if customer desires non-firm service.

Although KU is not proposing to change the text of its Fuel Adjustment Clause ("FAC"), other than the correction of a minor typographical error in Paragraph (3), it is proposing to recover certain costs through the FAC to ensure that the correct amounts are collected through base rates and the FAC.

Complete copies of the proposed tariffs containing text changes and proposed rates may be obtained by contacting Lonnie E. Bellar, Kentucky Utilities Company at 220 West Main Street, Louisville, Kentucky, 502-627-4830, or visiting Kentucky Utilities Company's website at www.lge-ku.com.

Celebrate Freedom

Wednesday, July 4

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The Unanimous Declaration of the Thirteen United States of America,

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.
